The corporate governance of Tamura Corporation is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes, and Other Key Information

1. Basic Views

The Company and its group companies (collectively, the “Group” or “Tamura Group”) have a basic management philosophy of respecting the interests of stakeholders. The management team entrusted with the Group’s management by shareholders thrives to promote efficiency and transparency in order to enhance compliance and maximize the Group’s value, based on a strong sense of mission and corporate ethics. The Group’s corporate governance supports the business activities as its foundation.

Reasons for Non-compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code

[Supplementary Principle 2-4 (1) Ensuring Diversity]

The Group has focused on talent development with the aim of becoming a "company that people long for" and a "company where people come." Under the 14th Medium-term Management Plan, which covers the three fiscal years from April 2025 to March 2028, the Group’s policy is to promote the integration of business, financial and sustainability strategies. The sustainability strategy is being deployed around the five items of Materiality, which include the realization of job satisfaction. During the 14th Medium-term Management Plan, the Group will measure the improvement in job satisfaction by the employee engagement score, targeting at 64 percent in fiscal year ending March 2027 and 70 percent in fiscal year ending March 2030. While the Group has not set the quantitative target for diversity, ensuring diversity among employees remains priority, as part of job satisfaction initiatives, as past engagement survey results showed that diverse viewpoints have positive impact on engagement.

Diversity information is included in the Securities Report (Japanese only) and the integrated report named Tamura Report (integrated report).

Disclosure Based on each Principle of the Corporate Governance Code

[Principle 1-4 Strategically held shares]

(Holding policy)

In the electronics industry in which the Group operates has a wide range of participants, from finished product manufacturers to parts suppliers, and it is essential for it to collaborate directly or indirectly with third parties in development, procurement, production, distribution, and sales of products. For this reason, the Company may hold certain strategic shares from a medium- to long-term perspective to improve corporate value, comprehensively considering business and alliance strategies. The Company's policy is to keep the value of strategically held shares at 10 percent or less of consolidated net assets.

The Board of Directors regularly verifies the suitability of individual holding, taking into consideration the business strategy of the Group as well as its business relationship with the issuers of the shares from a medium- to long-term perspective.

(Verification method)

The necessity of particular stock is reviewed in light of the above-mentioned purpose of holding and based on the three criteria: annual transaction value with the issuer; transaction trend for the last three years; and the value of holding against the value of transaction. The value of transaction is determined on a consolidated basis of an issuer.

(Exercise of voting rights)

The voting rights related to strategically held shares shall be exercised for each agenda item, comprehensively considering whether the holding contributes to the improvement of the medium- to long-term corporate value of the issuer and whether it leads to the improvement of the medium- to long-term corporate value of the Company. The specific criteria are disclosed on the Group's website (Japanese only).

(Criteria for exercising voting rights for strategically held shares (Japanese only):
<https://www.tamuracorp.com/ir/management/governance.html>)

[Principle 1-7 Related Party Transactions]

The Company's transaction involving conflict of interest such as transaction with its Director or any legal entity controlled by its Director, competing transaction or its Director's concurrently serving as director or officer of another legal entity shall be reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors.

[Supplementary Principle 2-3 (1) Responding to Sustainability Issues]

The Group has defined its long-term vision, "Aspiration for 2050" to become a leading company well-recognized by global electronics markets to contribute to realizing decarbonized society, based on its corporate philosophy and founding spirit. For realizing the vision, the Group established its 14th Medium-term Management Plan covering the three fiscal years from April 2025 to March 2028, which integrates its business, financial and sustainability strategies. Further, Tamura Group newly established and published its Sustainability Policy on April 1, 2025.

The details of sustainability activities are published on the Group's website and the integrated report, Tamura Report, drafted with reference to the GRI Sustainability Reporting Standards and the ISO 26000 guidance standards.

(Sustainability: <https://www.tamuracorp.com/global/sustainability/>)

[Principle 2-6 Function as an asset owner of corporate pension fund]

The Company has established the Tamura Seisakusho Corporate Pension Fund to ensure stable and efficient profit making and future pension benefits. The Fund has formulated the Basic Investment Policy and manages pension assets. The decision-making regarding asset management of the Fund is deliberated by its board of directors and its management committee. A person with appropriate qualifications has been appointed as managing executive director. In addition, the actual management of the Pension Fund is outsourced to financial institutions which have accepted the Stewardship Code in Japan. The activities of the financial institutions are reviewed based on their Stewardship Activity Reports. The relevant information is made available on the intranet for the members of the Fund.

[Principle 3-1 Enhancement of Information Disclosure]

[Supplementary Principle 3-1 (3) Disclosure of Sustainability Initiatives]

Tamura Group newly established and published its Sustainability Policy on April 1, 2025. Under the 14th Medium-term Management Plan, which covers the three fiscal years from April 2025 to March 2028, the Group has integrated its business, financial and sustainability strategies. The sustainability strategy is deployed around the five items of Materiality: (1) contributing to realization of decarbonized society; (2) pursuit of job satisfaction; (3) strengthening corporate governance; (4) strengthening enterprise risk management; and (5) fostering culture that emphasizes quality. The KPIs and the targets to be achieved by the fiscal year ending March 2028 have been set for each item. Climate change is identified as one of Materiality items, contributing to realization of decarbonized society, and the Group is promoting initiatives to reduce greenhouse gas emissions (scopes 1 & 2) by 25 percent or more compared to the fiscal year ended in March 2022, to increase the ratio of renewables in energy procurement to 35 percent or more, and to expand sales to the focus markets to 36 percent.

Although the Group has transitional and physical risks, its core businesses can benefit from expanding market opportunities associated with climate change. Please refer to the Group's website (<https://www.tamuracorp.com/global/sustainability/environment/tcf.html>) for more information on opportunities and risks related to climate change, prepared with reference to the Task Force on the Climate-related Financial Disclosure (TCFD) framework (Japanese only). The details of sustainability activities are published on the Group's website and the integrated report, Tamura Report, drafted with reference to the GRI Sustainability Reporting Standards and the ISO 26000 guidance standards.

(Sustainability: <https://www.tamuracorp.com/global/sustainability/>)

[Supplementary Principle 4-1 (1) Clarification of the role of the Board of Directors and the scope of delegation to management]

The Company has defined the matters to be resolved by the Board of Directors and the matters delegated to the Executive Officers and thus separated the supervision by the Board and the business execution, in accordance with the Terms of Reference of the Board of Directors, Authority and Duties Rules and other relevant internal rules. The outline is disclosed on the Group's website and in this Corporate Governance Report.

The Board of Directors decides on the matters stipulated by laws and regulations and the Articles of Incorporation, as well as other important matters of the Group.

The Executive Committee, as the highest decision-making body within the authority delegated by the Board, makes decisions or receives reports on important matters of the Group, including those to be reported or decided by the Board of Directors. The Executive Officers are responsible for carrying out their duties in their respective areas of responsibility based on the policies decided by the Board of Directors.

(Note: At the Company, the positions of Executive Officers are referred to as Chairperson, President, Executive Vice President (EVP), and Senior Vice President (SVP).)

(The Group's corporate governance structure: <https://www.tamuracorp.com/global/sustainability/governance/>)

[Principle 4-8 Effective utilization of Independent Outside Directors]

The Company has appointed four Independent Outside Directors, accounting for more than one third of the Board of Directors. Independent Outside Directors are actively participating in the discussions of the Board of Directors, providing independent and neutral viewpoints based on their abundant experience and expert knowledge, and contributing to the enhancement of corporate value.

[Principle 4-9 Independence Criteria and Qualities for Independent Outside Directors]

The Group has established its own Independence Criteria for Directors, available on its website. The Group shall select such candidates of Directors who meet the Criteria in addition to those set by the Companies Act and the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

(Independence Criteria for Directors and Audit and Supervisory Committee: <https://www.tamuracorp.com/global/ir/management/governance.html>) (Japanese only)

[Supplementary Principle 4-10 (1) Utilization of Committees]

The Company has established the Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee as an advisory body to the Board of Directors in order to make fair and transparent decisions regarding the nomination and remuneration of Directors and Officers. The Committee, which is chaired by the Lead Outside Director and consists of the Chairperson & CEO & CFO and the four Independent Outside Directors, meets several times a year. For details, please refer to 2. Matters Concerning Functions of Business Execution, Auditing and Supervision, Nomination, and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System) of II. Business Management Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems regarding Decision-making, Execution of Business, and Oversight in Management below.

[Supplementary Principle 4-11 (1) Approach to the balance of knowledge, experience and capabilities among Directors, as well as the diversity in and size of the Board of Directors as a whole]

Outside Directors are selected according to the Independence Criteria for Directors. In addition, the Group gives due consideration to the balance of knowledge and experience among the Directors such as business management, governmental positions, legal expertise, and global M&A, in order to strengthen competitiveness and promote sound and sustainable growth of its businesses. The Company ensures Outside Directors include one or more experienced business managers and the Audit and Supervisory Committee one or more persons with financial and accounting expertise.

For details, please refer to 2. Matters Concerning Functions of Business Execution, Auditing and Supervision, Nomination, and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System) of II. Business Management Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems regarding Decision-making, Execution of Business, and Oversight in Management as well as the attached Key Experiences and Capabilities of Directors and Auditors (Skill Matrix).

(Independence Criteria for Directors and Audit and Supervisory Board Members: <https://www.tamuracorp.com/global/ir/management/governance.html>) (Japanese only)

[Supplementary Principle 4-11 (2) Status of concurrent posts of Directors of other listed companies]

Outside Directors may concurrently serve as officers of other listed companies. The status of such concurrent positions is disclosed through the notice of convocation of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the securities report, and the Corporate Governance Report. None of the Executive Directors concurrently serves as an officer of listed companies outside the Tamura Group, allowing them to fully focus on their duties as Directors. Additionally, the full-time member of the Audit and Supervisory Committee does not hold any concurrent positions at other listed companies, ensuring he can fully dedicate himself to audit activities.

[Supplementary Principle 4-11 (3) Analysis and evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board of Directors]

As part of efforts to further improve the operation of the Board of Directors, it evaluates the effectiveness every year and discloses a summary.

For the fiscal year ended March 2025, the Board of Directors evaluated its effectiveness, including that of the Audit and Supervisory Committee (since June 2023) and the voluntary Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee. All the Directors and the Audit and Supervisory Committee Members anonymously answered a survey of selective or free response questionnaire prepared by a third party, who also analyzed the results. All Directors have received the report on the results and are scheduled to discuss improvement measures.

The outline of the effectiveness evaluation of the Board of Directors for the fiscal year ended March 2025 is as follows.

- Overview of Questions:
 - Composition, operation, discussion and monitoring of the Board of Directors, Performance of Inside Directors excluding the member of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, support provided to Directors, engagement with shareholders and investors, Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee, Audit and Supervisory Committee.
- Overview of Effectiveness Evaluation:
 - Average score remained the same as the previous year's, as improvements shown regarding the approximately two thirds of the selective questions, which were identical to last year's, were set off by lower scores for new selective questions. However, constructive and proactive feedback from many Directors continued, confirming that the overall effectiveness of the Board of Directors has been maintained.
- Identified Issues:
 - ① Lower score than last year: monitoring for Group, including group companies; and functions of the Audit and Supervisory Committee
 - ② Other areas for improvement: Operation of the Board (discussion items, time allocation and papers); Discussion (strategy and sustainable growth, enhancement of corporate value, capital cost, digital transformation), monitoring (internal control including group companies), the Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee (annual plan, target setting), the Audit and Supervisory Committee (audit on internal control system, audit on group internal control, selection of auditors).

[Supplementary Principle 4-14 (2) Training policy for Directors]

The Directors of the Company strive to acquire, review, and update the knowledge necessary to fulfill their respective roles and responsibilities. Directors receive in-house training when they are newly appointed. In addition to the information provided at the meetings of Board of Directors, Outside Directors are given opportunities of visiting key Group sites for audit and receives briefings by the Full-time Member of the Audit and Supervisory Committee regarding the status of the Group's business and management issues.

[Principle 5-1 Policy on constructive dialogue with shareholders]

The Group has the Investor Relations Department as the contact for investor and shareholder engagement. Further, the management briefings for analysts and institutional investors are conducted semiannually, within a few days after the financial results announcement. The presentation and other information used at the briefings are disclosed at the Tokyo Stock Exchange and on the Group's website. The opinions and other feedback from investors and shareholders are regularly reported to the Board of Directors. (Financial results presentation: <https://www.tamuracorp.com/global/ir/library/settlement.html>)

[Principle 5-2: Formulation and Disclosure of Management Strategy and Management Plans]

[Responses Aimed at Achieving Management with Awareness of Capital Costs and Stock Prices]

The Tamura Group has launched a new medium-term management plan, "One TAMURA for Next 100," in the fiscal year ending March 2026, in preparation for the next 100 years. Following on from the previous medium-term management plan, the Group will continue to view the global trend toward a decarbonized society as a market opportunity, and aim to realize its long-term vision of becoming " a leading company well-recognized by global electronics markets to contribute to realizing decarbonized society." Meanwhile, in the 13th Medium-term Management plan, profitability and asset efficiency remained insufficient. In response to this, in the 14th Medium-term Management Plan, the Group will aim for ROE of 8% and PBR of 1 or more by the fiscal year ending March 2028, by promoting business, financial, and sustainability strategies in an integrated manner. In terms of financial strategies, Tamura Group aims for increasing its cash generation capacity by improving profitability and capital efficiency and reinvest cash in building a foundation for growth and improving its corporate structure. Furthermore, the Group will strengthen shareholder returns with the aim of becoming a company that is valued by the stock market at PBR of 1 or more. At the start of the 14th Medium-term Management Plan, Tamura Group revised its basic policy on dividends of surplus to maintain stable dividends, and aim to return profits to shareholders with a dividend on equity (DOE) of 3% after improving its financial structure. In addition, taking into account the business environment and financial situation, it will also consider flexible share buybacks as part of shareholder returns. Progress on the 14th Medium-term Management Plan is published in the investor section of our website, securities reports, and integrated report "Tamura Report."

Incentives

Implementation Status of Measures related to Incentives Granted to Directors

Introduction of Performance-linked Remuneration Scheme / Introduction of Stock Options Scheme / Other

Supplementary Explanation for Applicable Items

The Company has introduced a performance-linked remuneration scheme and a stock remuneration scheme (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors).

[Performance-linked remuneration scheme]

Director's (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors) annual bonuses are calculated according to the performance of the relevant fiscal year in accordance with the procedures stipulated in the Director Evaluation Rules and Director Remuneration Rules. The key performance indicators of sales, net income attributable to owners of the parent company, ROE and others have been selected. These performance indicators are selected from the viewpoint of evaluating profitability and shareholder value improvement.

[Stock remuneration scheme]

The Company has introduced a stock remuneration scheme using a trust, for Directors excluding the Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors.

Under this scheme, a trust ("Trust") established by the Company by contributing money acquires the number of Company's shares equivalent to the number of points that the Company grants to the relevant Directors and transferred them to such Directors. There are two types of points granted under this scheme: fixed points granted according to a Director's position or other qualifications; and performance-linked points granted according to the position and the degree of attainment of performance targets of a Director. In principle, a Director can receive the shares granted when they retire.

The implementation status of incentive measures for Directors is disclosed in the securities report (Japanese only) and the integrated report, Tamura Report.

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

The Company has established a policy for determining the content of individual remuneration for Directors in the Director Remuneration Rules. In order to ensure fairness and transparency, this policy is first considered by the Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee, the majority of which consists of Outside Directors, and chaired by the Lead Outside Director, before the decision by the Board of Directors.

At the 99th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 28, 2022, the Company introduced a stock compensation scheme using a trust for the Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members). With the introduction of this scheme and the abolition of the stock option scheme, Directors' (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) remuneration consists of monthly compensation, performance-based compensation, and stock compensation.

The monthly remuneration of Directors is defined in the Director Remuneration Rules, and the ratio for each type of remuneration is determined in a way that contributes to improving annual business performance as well as providing healthy incentives for increasing corporate value over the medium to long term. A guideline for the ratio of each type of remuneration for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) when targets are fully achieved is as follows: 64 percent of monthly remuneration, 26 percent of performance-based remuneration, and 10 percent of stock remuneration. Directors who are the Audit and Supervisory Committee Members receive only monthly remuneration.

The Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee considers the original draft, including consistency with the policy, of individual remuneration and the Board of Directors in principle respects its advice.

Support System for Outside Directors

Although there is no specific department or staff in charge of assisting Outside Directors, occasional informal meetings with Internal Directors and the Secretariat of the Board of Directors assist and communicate information to them.

(Note: At the Company, the positions of Executive Officers are referred to as Chairperson, President, Executive Vice President (EVP), and Senior Vice President (SVP).)

Committees and meetings at Group Companies

For important subsidiaries, the Company's Directors and Officers also serve as officers of the subsidiary, and board meetings are held regularly.

Status of accounting audits

At the General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 28, 2007, the Company appointed Ernst & Young ShinNihon Audit Corporation (currently Ernst & Young ShinNihon LLC) as its accounting auditor.

In fiscal 2023, the certified public accountants who performed the audit work are Mr. Seiji Kuzunuki (1 year of continuous auditing) and Mr. Yohei Ikeda (5 years of continuous auditing). In addition, the assistants involved in audit work are comprised of nine certified public accountants and 22 other people.

Policies and procedures for determining remuneration for Directors

Remuneration for Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee members) is stipulated in the Director Remuneration Rules, and remuneration the Audit and Supervisory Committee Members is stipulated in the Audit and Supervisory Committee Member Remuneration Rules. Based on these rules, in order to ensure fairness and transparency, remuneration for Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee members) is first considered by the Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee, the majority of which consists of Outside Directors, and chaired by the Lead Outside Director, before the decision by the Board of Directors. Remuneration for the Audit and Supervisory Committee Members is determined through discussions among the Members including Outside Members.

Policies and procedures for nomination of Director candidates

The Board of Directors shall consist of at least one-third of Outside Directors, and the Company makes best efforts to elect persons who meet the independence criteria set by the Tokyo Stock Exchange as well as the Company. In addition, by adopting an Executive Officer system and separating executive and supervisory functions, the Company intends to ensure an appropriate number of Directors at the Board for it to operate properly.

- Candidates for Director (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members)

Taking into account the Company's businesses, scale, management environment and other factors, persons with knowledge, experience, and qualifications who can contribute to the fulfillment of the functions of the Board of Directors are selected as Director candidates. The balance and diversity of the entire Board of Directors is also considered in selection.

The Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee recommends candidates based on the Director Nomination Criteria, and the Board of Directors carefully deliberates and makes decisions.

- Director candidates who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members

Persons who can audit the business execution of Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) from a fair and objective standpoint, taking into consideration the Company's businesses, scale, management environment, audit system, and other factors, have the qualifications to contribute to improve management soundness and transparency, and have a wealth of knowledge and experience in business management and operations are selected as candidates for Directors who are Members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee. The Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee recommends candidates based on the Director Nomination Criteria, and the Board of Directors carefully deliberates and makes decisions after acquiring the consent of the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

- Appointment/dismissal

The appointment and dismissal of Directors and Executive Officers is carefully deliberated by the Board of Directors based on the Standards for Appointment and Dismissal of Directors and Officers after receiving advice from the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee.

(Note: At the Company, the positions of Executive Officers are referred to as Chairperson, President, Executive Vice President (EVP), and Senior Vice President (SVP).)

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

At the 100th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 28, 2023, The Company transitioned from a company with a audit and supervisory board to a company with an audit and supervisory committee. The reason for adopting the company system with an audit and supervisory committee is that by having the Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, who are responsible for auditing the execution of duties by Directors, as members of the Board of Directors, the supervisory and monitoring function of the Board of Directors can be strengthened and corporate governance can be enhanced. For an overview of the system, please also refer to the attached Corporate Governance Chart.

IV. Matters Concerning the Internal Control System

1. Basic Views on Internal Control System and Status of Development

The Tamura Group's internal control system aims to stabilize and improve efficiency of management, ensure appropriate accountability, and comply with laws, regulations, and internal rules. In order to achieve appropriate business management, the following systems, including risk management, compliance, and internal audit processes, have been established.

(1) System for maintaining and managing information related to the execution of duties by the Directors of the Company and a system for reporting matters related to the execution of duties by directors of Group companies to the Company.

a. Based on the Confidential Information Management Rules, the Company and the Group companies maintain and manage information related to the execution of duties by their directors. Each has established a system equipped with search functions that allows easy and timely access to information, taking all possible measures to maintain confidentiality according to the storage medium.

b. Each Group company has established a reporting system in accordance with the Group Company Management Rules to report to the Company regarding matters related to the execution of duties by its directors.

(2) Rules and other systems regarding the management of the risk of incurring losses

In order to manage the risk of incurring losses, the Group has established the Risk Management and Crisis Management Rules as a system to promptly inform the management of any circumstance that could pose a risk of losses to the Group. The system has been communicated and rolled out across the Group.

Should there be a serious crisis, a system has been established that the management could take appropriate actions to minimize risks to the Group, such as by having the President take direct command as the head of the crisis headquarters.

(3) System to ensure efficient execution of duties by Directors at each Group company a. The Company's Board of Directors meets regularly once a month and as needed, in order to ensure that the duties of the Directors are executed efficiently, deciding on important management matters stipulated by law and internal rules, and receiving reports from the Directors and Executive Officers in charge. At the same time, the Board of Directors supervises the efficient execution of duties by individual Directors.

b. The Company has adopted an Executive Officer system to speed up management decision-making and contribute to the efficiency of the execution of duties by Directors. The Executive Committee within the executive authority delegated by the Board, makes decisions or receives reports on important matters of the Group, including those to be reported or decided by the Board of Directors.

c. The Internal Audit Department of the Company conducts audits of each Group company based on the Internal Audit Rules and in cooperation with the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and reports the results and matters to be improved to the Representative Directors, Executive Committee and the Board of Directors.

e. The board of directors of Group companies meet regularly to determine their basic management policies and supervise the execution of duties by their directors, as well as the important matters of their subsidiaries, if any.

(4) System to ensure that the execution of duties by directors and employees of each Group company complies with laws and regulations and the articles of incorporation.

a. Based on the Ethics and Legal Compliance Rules established in accordance with the Group's corporate philosophy consisting of the Mission, Vision and Guidelines, the Group has a system in place to ensure that all of its directors, officers and employees shall comply with laws and regulations, social norms and ethics, and each company's articles of incorporation and internal rules.

In addition, based on the Sustainability Promotion Organization Regulations, the roles and responsibilities of each internal organization are defined, and a system is established to promote and oversee sustainability, including compliance.

Furthermore, the Group has established a whistleblowing system for Group employees to report or consult regarding illegal or potentially illegal acts that may occur in the course of business, so that the management could respond in a timely manner in order to secure the legality of the actions of directors and employees. There are two contacts to choose: an internal contact operated by a team of employees in the Group; and an independent contact operated by Members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, who are not part of the Group's executive team.

b. The Internal Audit Department conducts audit on accounting, business, compliance, information system, and other specific matters based on the Internal Audit Rules and evaluates the internal control system based on the Internal Control Basic Rules.

c. When a Director or employee finds a serious compliance violation such as those stipulated in the Ethics and Legal Compliance Rules, they shall immediately report it in accordance with the above-mentioned Alarm Escalation Rules and reported to the Board of Directors and the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

d. The Audit and Supervisory Committee may request the Executive Officers and or the departments in charge of relevant areas of responsibility to formulate improvement measures when they find any problem regarding the operation of the Group's compliance system.

(5) System to ensure the appropriateness of operations in the Group

a. In order to ensure the appropriateness of operations, the Group has established the corporate philosophy, consisting of the Mission, Vision and Guidelines, as well as the Tamura Group Code of Conduct based on them, which apply to and have been communicated to all the Group companies.

b. Based on the belief that its suppliers should understand the Group's corporate philosophy in order to ensure the appropriateness of its operations, the Group has summarized them in the Tamura Group Procurement Guidelines.

c. The Director in charge of each Group company shall report or submit for approval to the Board of Directors of the Company regarding important matters on a regular or timely basis in accordance with the Group Company Management Rules.

d. The Company ensures the proper performance of business, by allowing its Directors and Executive Officers to concurrently serve as directors of Group companies, as necessary. At the same time, such concurrent serving of Directors enables them to find and report important compliance issues at a Group company and report them in a timely manner based on the Alarm Escalation Rules and to the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee and the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

e. If a Group company determines that there is a compliance issue in the Company's control or guidance on such Group company's business management, it shall report it in a timely manner based on the Alarm Escalation Rules and to the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee and the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

f. The Internal Audit Department of the Company, in cooperation with the Audit and Supervisory Committee, regularly conducts audits of each Group company.

(6) Matters concerning the system regarding employees who should assist the duties of Audit and Supervisory Committee and the independence of such employees from Directors

- a. If the Audit and Supervisory Committee require employees to assist in their duties, the Board of Directors must appoint such personnel. In order to ensure the independence and neutrality of the duties of such personnel, the selection, dismissal, personnel changes, wages and other matters regarding them shall not be decided by the Board of Directors without the consent of the Audit and Supervisory Committee. In addition, the Audit and Supervisory Committee shall independently evaluate such personnel.
- b. Such personnel report only to the Audit and Supervisory Committee regarding their role as supporting the Committee.

(7) The system for reporting to the Audit and Supervisory Committee, including reports by directors, officers and employees of Group companies and the system for ensuring effective audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee

- a. The Risk Management and Crisis Management Rules have been established that directors and employees of the Group companies should promptly report such important matters as affect their business or business performance the Audit and Supervisory Committee.
- b. The Group makes sure that those who make report to the Audit and Supervisory Committee, or whistleblowers should not be treated unfairly, and such policy has been communicated across the Group.
- c. The Company has appointed those who have sufficient knowledge of finance and legal affairs related to corporate activities as Outside Members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee so that they could carry out appropriate and effective audit in cooperation with the Internal Audit Department.
- d. Expenses to be incurred in the performance of the duties of Audit and Supervisory Committee are budgeted every fiscal year and expenses incurred, including both budgeted and unbudgeted, are borne by the Company.

(8) System to ensure the appropriateness of financial reporting

Regarding internal control related to financial reporting, the Company thoroughly collects important information and disclose it in a timely and appropriate manner in order to ensure compliance with the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and the other related laws and regulations and the rules of the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

The Company has established necessary information disclosure system, the rules on internal control regarding information and its communications and monitoring and relevant information systems.

(9) Outline of the status of the system to ensure the appropriateness of business

a. Status of compliance system

The Group has established the policy on ethics and legal compliance.

The key actions regarding compliance in the fiscal year ended March 2025 were as follows.

- Identification and mitigation of potential compliance risks
- Online training of Code of Conduct for all senior managers in the Group
- Communication of compliance-related educational information via e-mail newsletters
- Enhancement of awareness and corporate culture on compliance through training, especially in high-risk areas such as competition law, information security, and customs compliance.

- Improvement of customs compliance management

As was explained in the “Establishment of External Investigation Team” announced on September 13th, 2024, the Company became aware of a potential issue regarding the accounting treatment of purchased parts inventory at two of its consolidated subsidiaries in China. The handling of this inventory may not have been in accordance with the Company’s internal rules (the “Subject Matter”). To conduct an objective and independent investigation of the Subject Matter, the Company decided to establish an external investigation team. Based on the report on the results of investigation and recommendation for preventive measures, the Company announced the following measures, as announced in the “Notice Regarding Formulation of Recurrence Prevention Measures and the Voluntary Return of a Portion of Executive Compensation” dated December 24th, 2024.

- Ensuring Awareness of Compliance and Proper Accounting Practices
- Strengthening Subsidiary Management System
- Strengthening Internal Controls for Two Consolidated Subsidiaries in China
- Expansion and Dissemination of the Internal Reporting System
- Strengthening Internal Audit Functions
- Review of Aging Rules (*)

(*) The internal rule of the Group involves recording inventory valuation losses through reclassification processing based on predetermined provisioning rates for each location and item according to the inventory holding period.

b. Status of risk management initiatives

The Group has established internal rules such as the Risk Management and Crisis Management Rules, Whistleblowing Rules, and Information Management Rules. Additionally, the Group has developed an enterprise risk management (ERM) system to promote and oversee risk management initiatives.

The main initiatives related to risk management in FY2024/3 were as follows.

- Identification and assessment of risks and determination of risks to be addressed across the Group at the Risk Management Committee
- Natural disaster emergency response trainings at the Company and Group companies in Japan
- Compliance training such as information security, occupational safety and harassment prevention
- Displaying posters to raise awareness about the whistleblowing

c. Status of business execution

The Company has formulated a Medium-term Management Plan to define the common targets for the entire Group. Progress is reviewed and promoted by the Executive Committee. (Note: At the Company, the positions of Executive Officers are referred to as Chairperson, President, Executive Vice President (EVP), and Senior Vice President (SVP).)

The Company stipulates matters to be resolved by the Board of Directors and matters to be delegated to the Executive Officers in the Terms of Reference of the Board of Directors, Authority and Duties Rules and other relevant internal rules so that the business of the Group including the duties of directors can be executed efficiently.

The Executive Committee within the executive authority delegated by the Board, makes decisions or receives reports on important matters of the Group, including those to be reported or decided by the Board of Directors.

d. Status of system to ensure the appropriateness of Group operations

In order to properly execute the business activities across the Group, it maintains and operates internal control in each Business Division and each Group company according to the internal control rules such as the Internal Control Rules, Authority and Duties Rules, and Group Company Management Rules. The Group has the Internal Audit Department, which conducts audits of the appropriateness, legality and rationality of business execution of each Group company based on the annual audit plan and evaluate them to make recommendations for validity and efficiency.

The key initiatives to ensure the appropriateness of business in FY2024/3 were as follows.

- Review of matters to be reported to the Company from each Group company as stipulated in the Group Company Management Rules

- Internal audits and internal control evaluations of each Business Division and Group company by Internal Audit Department
- Reports of internal audit results and internal control evaluation results to the Board of Directors, Representative

Directors and the Executive Committee

e. Status of initiatives to ensure the effectiveness of audits by Audit and Supervisory Committee

The Company has established and maintains the Terms of Reference of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, the Auditing Standards and other rules so that the effectiveness of the Audit and Supervisory Committee can be maintained and improved.

The key initiatives of the Audit and Supervisory Committee in FY2024/3 were as follows.

- Attendance as an observer at important meetings such as the Executive Committee meetings. (Note: At the Company, the positions of Executive Officers are referred to as Chairperson, President, Executive Vice President (EVP), and Senior Vice President (SVP).)

- On-site inspections of business departments and domestic subsidiaries and remote audits and on-site inspections of overseas subsidiaries

- Conducting hearings and discussions with Executive Directors and Executive Officers

- Exchanging opinions with the Accounting Auditor regarding such matter as their independence, business execution system, and quality control system

- Consultation with the Accounting Auditor regarding major considerations in accounting audits, receiving reports on the implementation status of the audit, and requesting explanations as necessary

- Improving audit effectiveness and efficiency through close collaboration with the Internal Audit Department

- Receipt of reports on operation and status of the whistleblowing system from those who are in charge

2. Basic Views on Measures for Eliminating Anti-Social Forces and Status of Development

The directors, officers and employees of each Group company shall have no relationship, including business relationship, with any antisocial force.

The Group has declared to ake a resolute response to unreasonable demands from antisocial forces that might threaten the order and safety of citizens' lives, which has been communicated throughout the Group.
