2. Reasons for the Revision

Based on its financial performance for the first half of the fiscal year and the outlook for demand, the Company has revised upward its forecasts for consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027. Net sales and earnings are expected to exceed the previous forecasts, reflecting continued demand for AI data center applications, solid demand for industrial equipment applications, and increased sales of new automotive boost reactors in the Electronic Components business. Operating profit is expected to significantly exceed the previous record high of JPY 5.4 billion, set in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2018. Profit attributable to owners of parent is also expected to surpass the previous record high of JPY 6.4 billion, set in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2019.
